Study Volumes for Spiritual Science

Project Free Man Creator - publication of study volumes: .. about the vision

- Goal: reference materials that will stand the time, to be useful for future serious students of anthroposophy worldwide
- Features:
 - series of Study Volumes with same format, layout, look and feel
 - A4 format
 - in English
 - Highly/well structured
 - Consistent nomenclature (across authors/sources)
 - Consistent standard referencing of Rudolf Steiner lectures
 - Digitally available alongside purchased books – outline mode navigation pane + searchable
- Contents
 - Making available little known or under-appreciated/acknowledged works that are unique or have '(near)-reference status' in secondary literature
 - publication of work of anthroposophists who dedicated their lifetime to this, and who delivered excellent study materials
 - Typically not available in English, or even rare and unknown in German (eg Maximilian Rebholz)
 - Integrative
 - On a theme: across authors – eg bundle of 'must-study' essays on the Christ Impulse, or the Elementary Kingdoms
 - Of an author: bundling fragmented publications or small separate booklets, eg Oscar Kuerten or Iwer Thor Lorenzen
 - Or both: eg Norbert Glas on physiognomy
- Inspiration: in the same spirit as
 - 'Arbeitsmaterial zum Studium der Geisteswissenschaft Rudolf Steiners'
 - 'Beitrage zum Studium der Geisteswissenschaft' - 'Ergebnisse aus dem Studium der Geisteswissenschaft Rudolf Steiners'
 - or, in contemporary science: Feynman's Lectures on Physics
- Further vision – where this could fit in .. SoSoG (Standing on the Shoulders of Giants)
 - imagine .. sort of GA series of 'essentials' of secondary literature, selection of classics, or 'incontournable' or 'unavoidable' best off selection
